ABOUT THE LOCAL AREA

Pickering 3 miles, Malton 9 miles, Helmsley 15 miles, York 27 miles. (Distances approximate)

Thornton le Dale lies on the southern fringe of the North York Moors and is one of the most picturesque villages in North Yorkshire. It has a thriving community and a range of superb amenities including pubs, primary school, bakers, chemist, independent shops, cafes and restaurants. Local sports amenities include cricket, football, squash and a bowling green.

There are high performing state and private schools in the area, and the nearby market town of Pickering provides all the attractions of an established market town.

Access to York, Leeds and the motorway network is via the A64, some 7 miles away. From Malton railway station are connections to London/Scotland from York. Trains reach Kings Cross in 1 hour 45 minutes. West along the A170 is the A1. Bus transport connects to Scarborough, Whitby, York, Leeds, Tadcaster and Sutton Bank.
